Category: Publications

Responsible Person: Publications Editor/Co-editor

Primary focus: The newsletter of the Society is designated to be the primary communication link with the members of the Society. This publication will provide a mechanism for sharing of information, continuing education, and membership recognition.

Instructions:

- 1) Frequency: Shall be published four times a year in the months of March (Spring), June (Summer), September (Fall), and December (Winter). The Spring issue is the annual nonmember issue and is sent to all labs with addresses on record with the Publications Committee. All other issues are sent to members only.
- 2) Deadlines: All articles should be received by the Publication Editor/Co-editor no later than the 15th of the month prior to publication (i.e. Feb, May, August and November). Articles relating to meetings held should be submitted as soon as possible after the meeting. Newsletters should be published prior to the last day of the issue month.
- 3) It is the responsibility of the Publication Committee to communicate in a timely fashion with those who have been assigned to submit an article. It is the responsibility of officers, Committee and Scientific Assembly Chairs to submit articles by the assigned deadline. The Publication committee will report to the Society Board of Directors if unable to obtain articles by the requested deadlines.
